

community imagination tool

community

A 20 minute
imagination
tool to help you explore
community

This pack contains

- blank worksheets
- community cards
- example cards
- a facilitator guide

For 3 people

instructions

- 1. Talk about the communities you currently belong to. Read the examples.
- 2. As a group, go through the Community Cards, reading each one aloud. If you belong to that community, put it on the 'my community' pile. If you know someone in that community, put it on the 'community door' pile.
- 3. List your current and future communities.

example card

Steven's communities

Steven lives in a country town.

He acquired a disability playing football.
Steven now fundraises
for the local football club and is on the committee.

He sometimes helps out with training juniors,
coaching and cutting up oranges at half time.

Steven loves the Dockers and is a life member.

He runs a group for injured and retired footballers.

example card

Zoe's communities

Zoe is a disabled artist and gamer. She met Robbie at a table top gaming group. Zoe was introduced to the group by mutual friends. Robbie and Zoe fell in love. Later, the group went to a gaming convention in Melbourne.

Zoe met another artist and they decided to make work together to sell to raise money to save endangered animals, something they are both passionate about.
